Jaunt series of low tables

Solid timber panels in an understated T-shape form the base of the Jaunt table. Subtle and harmonious changes in the thickness of the panels, chunky at the center and tapering out to a narrow gauge at the edge, provide an almost imperceptible dynamism, echoed by the tapered edge of the table top, which can be solid wood, natural stone or glass.

The wood top version offers even greater subtlety, as the tapered details of the legs are partly concealed. Restrained without being bland.
